

Radisson SAS Hotel Belfast

The Radisson SAS Hotel Belfast, is an architecturally striking hotel and is located in the lower Ormeau Road within Belfast city centre, an area that has been at the epicentre of the city's regeneration in recent years. Despite its urban setting, the Radisson SAS offers the visitor and guest access to a relaxing landscaped garden area which includes a water feature and terrace, ideal for outside events in the summer months.

The Radisson SAS has a large, spacious and very modern reception area, a bar and restaurant, 120 en-suite bedrooms, and five meeting and events rooms. There are also seven one bedroom suites and Suite 7, Belfast's largest one-bedroom suite, with its own meeting facilities. All rooms are fitted with individual temperature controls. The hotel and public areas are all accessible by wheelchair and some bedrooms have been specially adapted.

For the businessman or businesswoman the facilities at the Radisson SAS are ideal. Each bedroom is spacious and the facilities in each, from a TV to an ironing board, will cater for most guests' needs. Added to this is the superb facility for anyone on a business trip, free broadband internet access in every bedroom, as well as a laptop size safe.

A unique feature of the Radisson SAS Belfast is that it offers the guest two distinct room styles – Urban and Nordic. The Urban rooms are warm and funky, styled in rich reds and striking wood finishes; while the Nordic rooms are cool and calm with hues of blue and grey complementing pale, blonde wood. There are also a number of Business Class rooms which guarantee a DVD player, a king-size bed, upgraded toiletries, complimentary newspapers and free complimentary access to the LA Fitness in nearby Adelaide Street.

The Radisson SAS offers visitors and guests a wide selection of food and drink in the Filini Restaurant and Bar. Although, as the name would suggest, the restaurant has a particular flair for Italian dishes the Hotel's chefs are happy to cater for all tastes.

As well as catering for the individual coming over to Belfast on a business trip, the Radisson SAS can also host business meetings and events for up to 150 guests. The Hotel can also accommodate up to 120 guests for a lunch or dinner. It is superbly set up to help small, medium and large companies looking to do business in Northern Ireland and beyond.

