The Holiday Inn Belfast offers four-star accommodation and meeting space to cater for a variety of events.

The hotel's Academy Conference Centre contains nine self-contained, purpose built meeting and conference suites with flexible layouts which can accommodate up to 120 delegates theatre style. Each of the rooms is fitted with adjustable lighting, air conditioning and contains a cloakroom and easy working chairs to ensure delegate comfort. The Academy also offers a dedicated reception area with full business support.

CONFERENCE AND BANQUETING

The Olympic Conference and Banqueting Suite is a state-of-the-art conference and banqueting space catering for up to 550 Theatre Style or 324 Diners. The ground floor location is unique and flexible in that it offers direct access from street level, providing an ideal space for exhibitions and product launches. The suite sub-divides into sections and comes complete with natural daylight, adjustable lighting, PA system, air conditioning, induction loop system and 3-phase power supply.

The hotel has established a reputation as a first class Banqueting facility in the City and a range of specially tailored menus can be offered to suit all budgets, certain packages also include complimentary Room Hire and a Wine Reception on Arrival.

MEETINGS NETWORK TEAM

Whatever your meeting or conference requirements, our Meetings Network Team will ensure you receive the most flexible, personalised solutions available. This service encompasses the following areas:

- Personalise your booking – the moment you make contact with our Meetings Network Team, you'll be assigned a member of staff whose job is to take care of all aspects of your booking.
- Personalise your space – Holiday Inn has a range of facilities to suit every need, no matter how individual. These range from our exclusive range of Academy Meeting and Training Suites to our large Conference and Banqueting Suite – the Olympic.

- Personalise the way you're treated – First impressions count. So when your delegates arrive, we'll make sure there are members of the Meetings Network Team on hand to welcome your guests. Your dedicated Meetings Host will then be your delegates' one point of contact during and after the event.
- Personalise your menu – the same flexible personalised service applies to the food and refreshments your delegates will enjoy throughout the day. Whether you'll require lunch in your room, a series of themed refreshment breaks with Starbucks Coffee or a choice of internationally themed lunches in the restaurant, we'll ensure your delegates will get exactly what they want.

- Personalise your departure – once it's over we'll review your meeting with you and then ensure that your departure is as effortless as your arrival.

PERSONALISED WEBSITES

Promote your meeting with a personalised website – with our personalised websites we've made it even easier to ensure your event is a success. Simply place your booking with us and we'll provide you with a free customisable four-page website to promote and communicate information about your event.
