

What's new at... Geoffrey (Tailor)

- Kilts made in Scotland?
- Completely hand stitched in our own workshops?
- Pure wool?
- Yardage appropriate to your size?
- Proper deep pleats and a choice of pleating styles?
- Wide choice of cloth, weights and tartans?
- Having pleats cut out at the back for shaping and comfort?

- Proper lining and canvas?
- Belt loops?
- Traditional selvedge on bottom edge?

These things are not new, of course, we've always done them, and now we're helping promote this high quality of kilt making to preserve our heritage.

We support the effort to introduce a PGI (Protected Geographical Indicator) in EU legislation, to protect the use of the term Scottish Kilt to describe this high quality garment.

- Our 8 yard kilt fulfilling all these criteria retails made to measure at £375.00
- Discount outfit packages.
- Measuring specialists.
- Weavers of nearly 200 clan tartans and suppliers all quality Scottish tartans..
- All Hire outfits prepared on the premises.
