

Multrees Walk

Tel. 0131 557 0050

For luxury shopping at an exclusive central location, Multrees Walk houses Louis Vuitton, Links of London, Calvin Klein and Emporio Armani to name just a few. And, of course, there is Harvey Nichols at its southwest corner.

Parking is available at The St James Centre car park while Edinburgh's main bus station is situated off St Andrew Square underneath Multrees Walk.

www.the-walk.co.ukPrinces Mall

Tel. 0131 557 3759

The reinvention of Princes Mall in the heart of Edinburgh on the south side of Princes Street next to Waverley Station brings a bigger, more enjoyable shopping experience in a superb location. The Food Court offers everything from a leisurely coffee to a full meal. Open seven days a week with late night shopping on Thursday.

www.princesmall-edinburgh.co.ukSt James Shopping Centre

Tel. 0131 557 0050

Situated at the East End of Princes Street, St James Shopping Centre offers over 50 high street stores and is home to John Lewis, Next, Republic and River Island. There is access to over 1,500 car parking spaces and the centre is open seven days a week.

www.stjamesshopping.com

Valvona and Crolla

© Edinburgh Inspiring Capital

“

Did you know?

Edinburgh is the most popular UK destination for short breaks. Edinburgh was also voted BMI Best European Weekend in 2003 ”

Source: Wotif.com 2006

Armstrong's Vintage Clothing

© Edinburgh Inspiring Capital