Shopping in Canterbury

Horsebridge and Brownings Yard, Whitstable

new arts venue is being built next to the sea at Margate called Turner Contemporary, due to open in 2010.

There's also a national trail on the North Downs Way, country parks and secret valleys to explore. Sporting connections abound with Kent's own Dame Kelly Holmes flying the Olympics' flag for London in 2012, Kent successfully staging the Tour de France to a huge worldwide TV audience for a second time in 2007 and the Open Golf returning to the county in 2011.

Kent County Council (KCC) is leading the way by pioneering a broadband TV channel, www.KentTV.com, which includes a news service, information about local public services and short films about local communities and business.

We've set up the Kent Film Office which is attracting leading movie makers to locations in the county. Our Telehealth technology is providing instant online diagnosis for people needing home care, and Gateway centres are offering a range of council and community services under one roof.

We're putting Kent first, which means putting the county's people first, in all that we do.

In all, there's probably no better place to be at the moment. Kent has it all – and there's more to come.
