

All images © Merseytravel

Liverpool's trains provide over 38 million journeys a year

The famous Mersey Ferries

One of the Mersey Tunnels

By sea

River Mersey

The world famous Mersey Ferries connects Seacombe and Woodside on the Wirral Peninsula with Liverpool city centre. The direct route takes just 10 minutes between each terminal, but tour and cruise options are also available.

Tel. 0151 330 1444

www.merseyferries.co.uk

Isle of Man

The Isle of Man Steam Packet Company operates a year-round service between Liverpool and Douglas, Isle of Man, taking from just 2 1/2 hours with SuperSeaCat and SeaCat Fast Craft. Departures alternate between Birkenhead and Liverpool in winter and summer respectively.

Tel. 0871 222 1 333

www.steam-packet.com

Ireland

Norfolkline Irish Sea Ferry Services offers passengers over 50 sailings each week between Belfast, Dublin and Liverpool (Birkenhead) all year round. The journeys take seven and a half and eight hours respectively.

Tel. 0844 499 0007

www.norfolkline.com

Ring Traveline Merseyside for up-to-the-minute information on all local and national bus and train services, Mersey Ferries and Mersey Tunnels. Timetables are produced by Merseytravel and can be found online or by visiting one of seven Travel Centres in the region.

Tel. 0871 200 22 33

www.merseytravel.gov.uk

Liverpool's distance & average road journey times from selected UK cities

London	211.8 miles	3hrs 56 mins
Manchester	34.1 miles	46 mins
Birmingham	97.6 miles	1hr 50 mins
Sheffield	80.9 miles	1hr 38 mins
Cardiff	200.6 miles	3hrs 31 mins
Glasgow	219.2 miles	3hrs 39 mins
Edinburgh	221.2 miles	4hrs
Southampton	237 miles	4hrs 13 mins

© Mersey Partnership

