

Manchester tackling climate change

Manchester is my Planet is a programme of action to tackle climate change, backed by Manchester's 10 local authorities as well as universities, businesses and over 20,000 residents from across Greater Manchester.

