

Internationally linked, locally Accessible

Manchester's transport network includes international flights as well as trams, trains and buses – an ideal location for any business looking to relocate in the Northwest.

Shudehill Interchange includes a Metrolink stop, bus station and multi-storey car park