

Manchester transforming

The transformation of Manchester from a city dependent on manufacturing into a modern knowledge-based economy has been remarkable. With over 16,500 businesses Manchester is the driving force behind the Manchester city-region, the economic powerhouse of North West England, and the fastest growing economy outside London.